

Torrington PAL Scholarship Application

Torrington Police Activities League is pleased to announce our annual scholarship. PAL focuses on promoting character development and self-esteem while building positive relationships within the Torrington community. This scholarship represents our goal to help PAL students in the community reach their full potential in their future endeavors.

Three scholarships in the amount of $1000 each, will be awarded to selected students at Torrington High School.

Please fully complete each question in the application below or your application will not be considered. The application and a copy of a letter of acceptance from a university or college must be received by PAL no later than May 1st, 2023

Applications can be emailed to admin@torringtonpal.org or mailed to 1 Torrington Office Plaza, Torrington, CT 06790
